MAN CUTS OFF GIRL'S TRESSES AND CARRIES OFF SECOND ON WHEEL

Child Wakes to Find Him in Room and Her Long

Hair Gone.

The police of Brooklyn are looking lark silken hair which up to 9 o'clock this morning adorned the head of pretty Ida Sofier, thirteen years old, living in an apartment on the third floor of No. 316 Watkins Street, Brooklyn. According to the story of the girl and her seven-year-old brother, a man entered their room while they were sleeping and their mother was away and cut off the girl's pretty tresses.

Ida sold that she awoke and saw Ida said that she awoke and saw a man with a brown suit in her room. He inquired for her mother and went out. Shortly after the boy woke up and saw the same man going out the door with his sister's tresses. The police questioned the children and could not shake their story. About an hour after this, it was reported at Police eHadquarters that Esther Goldberg, seven years old, was missing. Children said they had seen her going away with a man on a bicycle. The man wore a brown suit.

A general alarm was sent out and an hour later the missing child returned. She said that the man had ridden up on a bleycle in front of her home at No. 1723 Lincoin Avenue and called her over to him. He told her that he was going to buy her some candy and picked her and placed her on his wheel in front of him. He stopped at a store at Raiph Avenue and Eastern Parkway and bought her an ice cream soda. A policeman stood across the street as they came out and the man, tellings her that he would be back in a little while, jumped on his machine and rode away. She walked bome.

UPHOLOS LOWER COURT.

Sustains Verdict Pavering the Da

Pont Powder Concerns. Pont Powder Concerns.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—The United States Circuit Court of Appaals to-day affirmed the verdict rendered in the Federal District Court in the case of the Bucksye Powder Company against the E. I. Du Pont de Nemours Powder Company, Eastern Dynamite Company and the International Smokeless Powder Company, the action against the Du Pont concerns being to recover $4,000,000 for alleged violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust act. It was charged that the defendants stiffed competition in the manufacture and sale of black blasting powder.

A jury in the lower court had found for the defendants, deciding that the evidence produced did not sustain the charges.

JAIL KEEPER NOW PRISONER FRECKLES

Martin Curry, formerly a head keeper in the penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, but removed from his office a month ago when accused of supplying prisoners with drugs, went back to the penitentiary to-day—but not as keeper.

tentiary to-day—but not as keeper. Where Curry was once a person of great importance he will be for the next six months one of the units in the prison population, the associate of scores of malefactors who were subject to his orders but a short time ago.

Curry was arraigned in the Court of Special Sessions to-day and plended guilty to the charge of buying drugs in Manhattan and selling them to prisoners under his care. Justices Herrman, Freschi and Marsh decided that in view of the humiliating position Curry must occupy a term of six months would be sufficient punishment.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freekles, as the prescription othine—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should strength—strength—tree that even the worst a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freekles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

He sure to ask for the double strength othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freekles.
